NASHO BOARD OF DIRECTORS INDUCT TABATHA ERCK CHAIRWOMAN AT ANNUAL SPECIALTY HEALTH SUMMIT

May 5, 2015 – Las Vegas, NV – The Board of Directors of the National Association of Specialty Health Organizations (NASHO) earlier today inducted Tabatha Erck – CEO of Chiropractic Care of Minnesota, Inc. (CCMI) – Chairwoman of the Board. Erck assumes the helm from Andrew Alcorn and begins a two-year term effective immediately.

CCMI is a nonprofit, independent physical medicine network management organization, serving more than one million managed care members throughout Minnesota and the upper-Midwest. Erck has served at the helm since April 2010. In addition to a Masters in Healthcare Administration and more than two decades of health care and insurance industry experience, Erck continues to add to her impressive credentials in pursuit of a doctorate in Leadership with Public Policy Certificate from the University of St. Thomas.

Erck has served on the NASHO Board of Directors since 2012, and previously chaired the Physical Medicine Management Alliance. “As a career professional in the specialty healthcare industry, I recognize the important role that managed specialty health care organizations play in facilitating positive health outcomes incumbent to an individual’s overall well-being,” remarked Erck. “It’s an honor to take the helm of and serve an organization dedicated to mainstreaming specialty healthcare within the healthcare marketplace and delivery system.”

NASHO Executive Director Julian Roberts added, “Tabatha Erck has already established herself as a leader within our organization through her tireless commitment to fulfilling our mission. As Chairwoman, she’ll be in even greater position to lend her talents and expertise to further our efforts.”
